AMERICAN LEAGUE
Washington Wins Doubleheader, St. Louis, Sept. 19.—Washington took both ends of the doubleheader from St. Louis. In the first game, Groome kept St. Louis' hits well scattered and his support was brilliant, while Allison was wild and his support failed him at critical stages.

In the second game the visitors drove Powell off the rubber in the sixth and hit Adams, who replaced him, hard. A single, two passes and an error gave the locals their scores. A. Williams' batting featured both contests. Miller, a recruit from Lowell, Mass., made his debut with the home team in the second game. Score, first game: R. H. E. Washington 2 6 1 St. Louis 0 7 2 Batteries—Allison and Alexander; Groome and Williams.

Score, second game: R. H. E. Washington 3 12 2 St. Louis 2 5 3 Batteries—Powell, Adams and Stephens; Cushman and Williams.

Break Even.
Chicago, Sept. 19.—Philadelphia lost the first game to Chicago and thereby let Washington take second place, neither now having a chance to do better than the Boston for the championship, even though they win all their remaining games and Boston loses all the games it has to play.

In the second game, which was called at the end of the eighth on account of darkness, Brown held the locals to one hit and only one man reached first base. White lasted until the sixth, when Lamline, a recruit, went in. He was hit seven times for seven runs in the seventh inning. Score, first game: R. H. E. Philadelphia 1 8 2 Lang and Easterly; Covalski and Egan.

Score, second game: R. H. E. Philadelphia 12 14 0 Batteries—White, Lamline and Mayer; Brown and Egan.

Detroit Takes Doubleheader.
Detroit, Sept. 19.—New York was twice defeated by Detroit. The opening contest saw free hitting on a heavy field. McConnell was easy for Detroit on two critical occasions. Wheatley outplayed Ford in the second game. Score, first game: R. H. E. Detroit 7 11 2 New York 4 12 2 Batteries—Jensen and Stange; McConnell and Sweeney.

Score, second game: R. H. E. Detroit 3 9 1 New York 2 7 1 Batteries—Wheatley and Onslow; Ford and Sweeney.

GREETED BY THE INDIANS
Roosevelt Travels in New Mexico—Red Men Gather

Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 18.—The "Great White Father" in the person of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt opened diplomatic relations with the Indians of New Mexico today, and he and his staff started for Colorado tonight, had struck up a neighborhood acquaintance with them. Most of the day was spent in the run across the state, and whenever the train stopped the Indians studied Roosevelt and Colonel Roosevelt studied the Indians.

The colonel's arrival in Albuquerque toward the end of the day brought him back, he said, to the call of duty and he took up the campaign once more.

Colonel Roosevelt spoke to a large crowd on the Plaza here. He appealed especially to the Spanish-Americans to support the new party and to turn their backs to the bosses. It was the Pueblo Indians whom Colonel Roosevelt met wherever he went today. The Apaches and Zuni who live back from the railroad had never heard of the Progressive party and did not come to see its candidate. There was some talk whether the Pueblos themselves would be interested in a presidential candidate and Colonel Ceril Lyon of Texas, major-domo of the Roosevelt train, sent word ahead to the Indian villages along the way that the "Great White Father" was coming through. On the strength of this assurance they left their little white huts on the cliffs and came out in full regalia.

Pueblos Await Train.
The largest gathering of Pueblos was at Laguna, a picturesque settlement of low, white buildings on the side of the hill, with a Catholic church, a monument to the early Catholic missionaries to the Indians towering over all. There were perhaps a hundred Indians in the crowd around his neck, walked solemnly forward and thrust out his hand while the lesser Indians stood back in silence. Colonel Roosevelt grasped the outstretched hand.

"What school?" the colonel asked. "Carilale," the chief replied. "That's fine, by George," said the colonel.

"There was a Carilale boy at the Olympic games who cleaned them all up. He ran like a coyote with a torch in his mouth."

Wag Their Heads.
At this utterance the Indians wagged their heads and smiled, for the colonel had used a bit of Indian slang which they understood.

"Oh, I lived among the Indians in the north," he said, "and I know a good deal about you. See here."

The colonel thrust one arm into the air with two fingers held apart like a V.

"That means jackrabbit," he said. "The Indians wagged their heads. Then the colonel drew his forefinger across his throat as if he were cutting it."

"Sioux Indians," he said, and the Indians agreed. With his forefinger the colonel traced an imaginary wriggling line through the air.

"Comanches," he announced. By this time the Indians were smiling broadly. The colonel then put his hand, with fingers outstretched, beside his head and waved them as though they were huge ears. It was supposed to represent the head of a wolf peering over the top of the cactus.

"Apache," he called out. "The Great White Father knows," said the chief. Several squaws with blankets balanced on their heads, walked up. In the baskets were fruit, pottery and all sorts of things which the Indians make. The colonel, who has been showered with presents of fruits and flowers, since he began his trip, looked at them expectantly.

There For Business.
"Ten cents," said a squaw holding up a vase.

There was nothing free. The squaws were there purely for commercial purposes and the colonel directed his secretary to buy something from each.

A large part of the crowd which heard Colonel Roosevelt in Albuquerque was composed of Mexicans, and there was a scattering of Indians. Half a hundred cowboys rode by at a gallop while the colonel was speaking and almost broke up the meeting.

George Armijo, who was a sergeant of Colonel Roosevelt's rough riders, acted as interpreter for his old commander when he spoke to those in his audience who knew only Spanish.

"I hope you will break loose from the bosses in this state," said Colonel Roosevelt. "I ask you to be your own masters. I ask you to act for yourselves and tell the bosses you are through with them."

In his general address, Colonel Roosevelt attacked the "bosses" of both parties.

"As I make my appeal to honest members of the Republican party," he said, "so I make my appeal to honest members of the Democratic party. The Progressive is the true conservatism. The real reactionary always invites government by conspiracy."

Colonel Roosevelt enters Colorado tomorrow, speaking in La Junta, Rockyford, Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver.

MAY CROSS LINE FREE
No Duty to Be Collected on Mormon Refugees' Goods

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 18.—American refugees from the Mormon colonies of Mexico today may enter the United States without paying duties on their possessions. United States customs officials along the Mexican border have received instructions from Washington to admit all necessary possessions of the refugees duty free.

This will allow the Mormon settlers in Chihuahua and Sonora to move their portable homes over the international line and camp on the American side.

The Mormon settlements in the Casas Grandes districts southwest of the border at this point remain practically unpopulated by Mexican federal troops.

Marfa, Texas, Sept. 18.—Colonel Pascual Orozco, Sr., and five other staff officers of Pascual Orozco, Jr., rebel commander of the north, arrived here tonight from Presidio, Texas, to which point they fled after the rebel defeat at Ojuna, Mexico, opposite. They were in custody of United States Marshall Mathews and a squad of United States cavalry. The Mexican consul here has filed a complaint against all of the prisoners, charging violation of the United States neutrality laws. The examining trial will be held tomorrow before United States Commissioner Griffin.

Several attorneys are here to represent the defendants who are Pascual Orozco, Sr., Cristobal Caballero, Rafael Flores, M. C. Aldaz and Jos. E. Cordova. The latter was General Orozco's private secretary and chief adviser.

No such man as Pablo G. Orozco was arrested at Presidio, as announced in the military report.

Yaqui Indians on Warpath.
Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 18.—Word received through official sources tonight that the Yaqui Indians captured the town of Altar, Sonora, and not the rebels under Emilio Campa. A hundred Yaquis who took the warpath about ten days ago completed it after a desperate battle. Information here tonight had it that the hostiles laid waste the town, killing defenseless residents and attacking women and girls. No definite information was received concerning American.

Information believed to be authentic was received here tonight that the combined forces of the rebels south of here at Morelos planned another effort to capture Agua Prieta. Dispatch of troops from Agua Prieta to reinforce the federalists in the vicinity of Morelos was accordingly delayed. General Sanjines ordered Colonel Alvarado today to keep in close touch with the insurgents. Colonel Vasquez Gomez and Captain Theodore Rodriguez, who were arrested here in July in connection with the Vasquez Gomez alleged conspiracy to violate the neutrality laws, will be taken to El Paso tomorrow to stand trial in the United States district court there.

The min were held for trial in El Paso, but owing to the fact that no federal judge had been appointed for Arizona, there was no one to sign the order transferring them to jurisdiction. Federal Judge Sivane made the necessary order yesterday.

Vasquez took prominent part in the Lower California insurrection of last year and Rodriguez was formerly chief of police of Agua Prieta.

COMMITTEE OUSTS SEVEN
Taft Leaders Hold Heresy Trial—Roosevelt Men Condemned

New York, Sept. 19.—By unprecedented but unanimous action the Republican national committee, sitting as a trial court in the Hotel Manhattan, yesterday ousted seven of its members for heresy and disloyalty to President Taft. Of the forty-eight members of the committee, forty-one were present or were represented by proxies. All voted to expel the accused members.

The hearing was held behind closed doors and Chairman Hill announced that the committee had accepted the resignation of the members from Ohio, Oklahoma and Minnesota and had declared vacant the seats for four others. Those who were "fired" are: Borden D. Whiting of New Jersey, who had refused to resign. He will be succeeded by Franklin Murphy, former governor.

William J. Edwards of West Virginia, who is working hard for Roosevelt, and who had refused to resign. He will be succeeded by former United States Senator Nathan Scott.

Declared Disloyal.
Richmond Pearson of North Carolina, recently declared disloyal by the North Carolina Republican state convention. His successor is to be E. C. Duncan, a former senator.

Russ Avery of California. He has not resigned, but has said the Republican party in California has quit the national Republican party. The national committee will choose his successor.

Those who resigned are: Walter F. Brown, the Ohioan, whose place is to go to Sherman Granger; C. C. Priestly, a Bull Moose of Oklahoma, and J. A. Caswell of Minnesota.

Never before has a national committee found it necessary to try any of its members for heresy and disloyalty. The resolutions passed to insure harmony, which the committee says is absolutely essential, are so plain that even a voter can understand them.

FORGED CHECKS TO BUY DRINK
St. Louis, Sept. 19.—Waldemar A. Archer, a lumberman well known here and in New Orleans, is in jail and admits forging eight checks for an aggregate amount of $82 after having squandered his savings of $40,000 for drink.

Five years ago, according to his statement, he retired as secretary of the Malvern Lumber company of Arkansas, and since then he says he has wandered aimlessly from coast to coast, spending his savings of $40,000, principally for drink.

WILL CONTINUE TO TAKE DUTIES
Washington, Sept. 19.—The federal government will collect duty over protest for the time being on all importations of shipbuilding materials and equipment placed on the free list at the last session of congress. This course will be followed until the treasury department has decided the scope of free entry under the new law. Until it is decided whether food for ships and other articles are free, the duties will be deposited.

Make Your Coal Work Overtime
